BEAT THE HEAT! HOMEBOUND SENIORS NEED YOUR HELP!

480-312-5810 | <http://www.scottsdaleaz.gov/seniors>

Donations are needed! Every June, the Via Linda and Granite Reef senior centers provide a care package of summer goods for isolated, frail and homebound seniors. Donations are now being accepted for these items: new reusable water bottles, nutritional supplement drinks, bottled water, small healthy snack items, unused personal hygiene items, forever stamps and grocery store gift cards for a minimum of $35.

CONCERNED CITIZEN FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH

www.ConcernedCitizensScottsdale.org/

Providing emergency financial assistance to help residents in times of crisis such as rent or mortgage payments, utilities, needed medical prescriptions, transportation, and other immediate concerns. Give back to your community by donating and be eligible for an Arizona tax credit for Helping the Working Poor. Call 480-312-2224 for more information. CCCH has partnered with the City of Scottsdale and Vista del Camino for over 30 years. Need help? Schedule a confidential appointment at 480-312-2323.

Handlebar Helpers Program

Apprentice >>>

Our apprentice program is for Scottsdale youth ages 12-17 and teaches bicycle repair and maintenance. The program is open to Scottsdale residents and students of Scottsdale schools. After completing 35 shop hours participants are able to earn a bike through the program. Mechanical aptitude or experience is a plus, but not required.

Lead Apprentice >>>

Lead apprentice program is for youth ages 13-17. Youth must have completed the apprentice program. As a lead apprentice you will continue to work on bikes while helping to train your peers. Participants are able to trade their shop hours for rewards and are able to complete 125 hours annually.

Earn A Bike >>>

The "Earn a Bike" Program promotes service to the community by offering free bicycles to those who volunteer in the valley. Participants may earn a bike with as little as 30 hours of volunteer time. Open to all ages, if you are a Scottsdale resident you can volunteer anywhere. For non residents you must volunteer with an organization in Scottsdale. After enrolling in the program your volunteer hours will count towards your bike.

Shop Hours
Weekdays: 2:30 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.
Saturday - Sunday: CLOSED

Handlebar Helpers is a volunteer program that teaches bike maintenance through our apprentice program and offers free bicycles for volunteerism. All bicycles have been donated to the Handlebar Helpers shop where they are reconditioned by our apprentice and volunteer programs. Those bikes are then distributed through our "Earn a Bike" and apprentice programs. We also offer a limited number of bicycles for sale in our shop.
